

INSTRUCTOR

Rex Bennett
Equity Member
Frost Brown Todd, LLC
Indianapolis, Indiana

Bennett, a member of Frost Brown Todd, LLC, focuses his efforts in the Lending and Commercial Services and Real Estate practice areas. He has represented lenders in financing a wide variety of business ventures, including the acquisition of airport operations in multiple states and construction financing for multiple, highly specialized healthcare facilities across the country. Bennett has also represented heavy equipment finance companies in reclaiming collateral and traditional lenders working out troubled real estate and C&I loans (including forbearance agreements), the restructure of credit facilities, guaranties, and entire collateral packages. His work with residential and commercial developers runs the gamut of transactions: optioning, financing, acquiring the ground, financing construction, leasing/operations, and in some cases, sale. With nearly 30 years of practice, Bennett says he enjoys helping his clients move “from dirt to disposition.” Bennett received his B.A. in psychology from Greenville College in Greenville, Illinois, and M.A. in higher education from Southern Illinois University. He received his J.D. from the Southern Methodist University College of Law.
