

INSTRUCTOR

Thomas Carlin
President
The Financial Training Group Ltd.
New York, New York

Carlin is president of The Financial Training Group Ltd. designers and implementers of training systems for the financial services industry including credit skills, international banking, selling and negotiations skills, and product knowledge. Carlin has worked both domestically and internationally as a line lending officer and as a consultant to banks in the design and implementation of technical training programs. His banking career includes First Pennsylvania Bank and Bankers Trust. Carlin holds a B.A. from Villanova University and a master's degree in international management from the American Graduate School of International Management.