

INSTRUCTOR

Lamar Clark
Southlake, Texas

Clark's professional background includes 22 years of banking and 14 years of public accounting. His banking experience includes managing commercial lending, risk management, and centralized underwriting and monitoring of middle market and business banking clients. Clark retired from Bank of America at the end of 2004, and until mid-2006, was the business banking risk director for Wachovia Bank of Texas. His public accounting experience was with Texas CPA firms focused on tax, accounting, and auditing for community-based businesses. In addition to serving as an RMA Instructor, Clark consults with a number of closely held businesses and works with Government Capital Corporation in Southlake, TX where he places public finance opportunities with banks and investors. He holds a B.B.A. degree in accounting from Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, TX.