

INSTRUCTOR

D. Scott Dixon
Regional Director, Georgia Commercial Real Estate
RBC Bank
Atlanta, Georgia

Dixon is regional director for RBC Bank's Georgia Commercial Real Estate Division. He manages a team that is responsible for overall relationship management and business development for owners and developers of commercial income-producing properties in Georgia and the Southeast. Prior to his current role, he served as President of RBC Capital Advisors.

Dixon has more than 26 years of experience in commercial real estate finance. Prior to joining RBC in January 2005, he held senior level positions in Commercial Real Estate finance with AmSouth Bank, First Union National Bank, and Wachovia Bank. He commenced his career with Barnett Bank in Florida in 1984, and transferred to Atlanta in 1990. Dixon is a member of ULI, ICSC, and the Real Estate Investment Advisory Council. He holds a B.S. degree from the University of Florida at Gainesville.