

INSTRUCTOR

Carol F. Doeringer
President
Midwest Consulting Group
Allegan, Michigan

Doeringer is founder and president of Midwest Consulting Group. In addition to providing credit training in the banking industry, she specializes in leading smaller businesses through strategic and business planning exercises that often culminate in requests for venture capital and other financings. Prior to founding Midwest Consulting Group, Doeringer spent ten years in banking and finance including commercial lending at AmeriTrust Company, cash management treasury responsibility at Sherwin-Williams, and corporate sales and marketing management for Society National Bank. Doeringer holds a B.A. from Lake Erie College and an M.B.A. from Cleveland State University.