

INSTRUCTOR

William W. Green, Jr.
Consultant
Henderson, Nevada

Green is currently retired after 28 years in Banking. The first ten years of his career focused on business development in the middle market, national accounts, and international lending arenas. After a stint formulating and leading a Credit Training Program, Green served the remainder of his career on the Credit Policy and Administration side where he was Chief Credit Officer at two First Interstate and Norwest Bank affiliates before ending his career as Deputy Chief Credit Officer-Commercial at Washington Mutual Bank. Throughout his career, he conducted many credit-related courses at his lending institutions and actively developed and mentored several entry and junior level staff members. Green has a B.A. degree majoring in Economics/Accounting/Economics from Muskingum College and a Masters of International Management from the American Graduate School of International Management (Thunderbird).