

INSTRUCTOR

Nikki Griffith, MAI, CCIM
Sandollar Realty Advisors

Ms. Griffith has spent over 35 years in the real estate industry. She began her career in the underwriting and loan production arenas for a national mortgage banking firm, and eventually transitioned into private practice as a commercial appraiser, earning her MAI designation from the Appraisal Institute.

During her career, Griffith spent nearly 15 years (retiring in 2004) as Senior Vice President and Chief Appraiser for Bank One where she had oversight responsibility for a $20 billion portfolio of income-producing real estate throughout the U.S. Previously, she worked as Chief Appraiser for the RTC, where she had a number of high profile real estate portfolios of several failed S&L institutions re-appraised. Currently, she is back in private practice, specializing in appraisal, education, consulting, and litigation support for the banking community.

Griffith has served on local, regional and national committees of the Appraisal Institute. In addition to her appraisal license, she also holds a real estate broker's license and recently earned the prestigious CCIM designation for excellence in commercial real estate brokerage. She earned her bachelor's degree in management and communications from St. Louis University.
