“Being a part of RMA has provided me with avenues to both enhance my credit skills and network with other industry professionals. The cosponsored education events provide training in local settings. One of the best features of these education events is that there is something for the new banker, seasoned banker, and anyone in between. The event instructors are interactive and provide valuable insights that can be readily applied to your job at your institution. RMA has also provided me with the opportunity to build a network of industry professionals. The Chapter Leadership Conferences were the start of this network building. Sessions at the conference were YP focused and also chapter focused, enabling the mixing of seasoned RMA members and new RMA members. The specific break-out of YPs at these conferences, as well as targeted audio conferences and social media postings, allows me to interact with my peers in a professional setting and discuss issues facing YPs today.”

“Joining RMA has been such an amazing experience for me. I have met so many wonderful people and mentors through this organization. I think every banker should consider membership, whether as an organization or as an individual. The classes provided are such wonderful resources! The events held are always so fun and informative! And you will truly make friends that you will have for a lifetime! Don't wait any longer to join RMA... because you've already missed too much.”

Cynthia Provenzano

“Being a part of the National YP Committee and our local YP Group has been a great way to connect with my peers in my market and across the country. Participating in the Chapter Leaders Conference definitely enhanced the experience. Not only was it FUN, it was very informative and I felt like I was part of the expanding RMA footprint with national YP exposure.”
