

Scholarships

On May of 2015, Risk Management Association South Florida Chapter was able to provide a total of $4,000 in scholarships. Four (4) $1,000 scholarships were awarded to two deserving college and two deserving high school students. The scholarship winners were:

- Taylor Hendrickson from Alexander Dreyfoos High School (she is attending Stanford in the Fall 2015) entering as an Economics Major with a Minor in Communications
- Aagam Vakil from Alexander Dreyfoos High School (he is attending Emory University in the Fall 2015) entering as a Finance Major
- Nicole Verheek from Palm Beach Atlantic (Senior International Business major) who will be graduating in 2016
- Esrael Morales from Florida Atlantic University (Junior Finance Major)

As part of their application, each of our applicants had to answer the following question as part of their application: Please provide two or three ideas for innovations in the consumer banking and describe how they would improve customer satisfaction.

Scholarships are open to all high school seniors & college students, who are residents of Palm Beach or Broward County, who intend to or are studying Finance Accounting, Economics or a related Business field. To further expand RMA's reach at the University level, all college student applicants were required to join RMA as student members.

Additionally, the Chapter will be announcing on May 15, 2016 this year's scholarship winners. This year's applicants had to answer the following: Please describe your thoughts as to how the banking industry in the United States can improve.
