WEB ACCESS TO MEMBER INFORMATION

Professional members may access only the contact information of other professional members via the RMA website.

This policy was developed after careful consideration regarding the privacy wishes of our members. RMA Associate members have repeatedly requested that their contact information remain private from other segments of our membership. Of course, RMA never rents or sells our membership list to any outside organization either.

We understand the desire of all members to take advantage of their membership in RMA for networking purposes. Chapter meetings are an effective way to network with other RMA members in your community.

Professional members' contact information will be available to Associate members through RMA's Professional Member Directory. This ensures that an RMA Associate member shopping for a product or service offered by your firm has the necessary information to reach you.

We hope you understand our need to respect the privacy wishes of our Associate members.
